

YACHTING IN GREECE: RETURNING RESPONSIBLY AS OF JULY 24, 2020 UPDATE 28.5.2020

Dear Small Ship Enthusiasts,

A journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step - in our world, a nautical mile, - as we lift our anchors on July 24th 2020 and set sail returning to the roots of our Greek heritage.

Following a carefully crafted step-by-step safety & comfort protocol we return to the seas responsibly in our homeland Greece that handled the health crisis in an exemplary way, praised by media worldwide allowing Greece to once again raise her flag with pride, compassion, and hope for all. For the families that have been directly affected by this horrible crisis we send you our warmest wishes and are here for you holding your hand in spirit.

Since our inception in 1949 we have weathered a lot and have grown stronger and wiser with each passing storm... and for that we are grateful, because history is written with both achievements, but also with challenges. We believe that travel is more than just a luxury, but a way of life; a public function necessary for our growth and evolution, and at times like these... for inner healing; so we invite you to join us once again with the safety and compassion of our family of guests, crew & communities we visit at the core of all that we stand for.

Our 24-cabin M/S Galileo will be our first yacht to resume sailing in Greece with her first cruise departing on July 24, 2020 and weekly through end October 2020.

Please review our updated safety protocols detailed hereunder and let us know if we can address any of your questions or concerns.

We will be continually monitoring the situation to provide you with timely updates on our future cruise operations.

We look forward to welcoming you back on board our small ships.
